

As You Need Me!

This service is for you if you are not planning a major renovation but need a little help with decision making. Many people need a second opinion or assistance with selecting colors, fabrics or furnishings or materials for their homes. This service helps you to avoid mistakes that come with making the wrong purchases!

You may purchase "blocks of my time" to be used as needed to help you create your vision. Below are some of the ways you may use this service and the policies that apply.

If you need help sourcing materials

If you are remodeling and need your plans verified for good flow and use of space.

If you need a trained eye to verify your materials work well in the space

If you are purchasing furnishings and need to verify they work well in your space.

If you have fallen in love with a look from a magazine and need help sourcing the items.

If you need help sourcing art or designing custom pieces.

5 hours.....	$810.00
10 hours.....	$1620.00
20 hours.....	$3240.00

Your hours will be held on account and you will be charged in 5 minute increments. A report will be sent to you bi-weekly indicating the amount of hours that remain and how your time has been used. When you reach the end of the package hours, you may purchase an another package if your project needs have not been filled.

You may use this time a you choose and will be charged accordingly including for phone calls, emails and text messages pertaining to your project. The time purchased is valid for 90 days and is null and void after that time period with no refunds on any balance remaining.